“ Oh this news breaks my heart. When you retired I missed seeing you at dairy mart having your coffee with James and you telling me all kinds of crazy stories. I got use to seeing you both in the morning and looked forward to you comming in. You always had a smile on your face. You were a man that always talked about your family and I know they miss you. May you rest in peace Bob. Oh Bob it is raining right now but it is NOT raining frogs...

“ Though I have not seen my uncle Bob for many many years I still have fond memories of him. In my memory he seem to always like to laugh. My first thoughts after hearing the news was the reunion he and his sister, my mother, Mary are having. Keeping the Hodges in our prayers. Ken Fisher and family
